Terms and Conditions

We reserve the right to remove or alter any prices or benefits of our Season Passes at any time.

- When you have purchased your Season Pass, you will receive your pass card/s either in person at the desk or in the post within 10 working days.
- Our Season Passes may only be used by the person or persons who have purchased them. You may not give, transfer or lend your pass to anyone else. Our season passes are non-refundable, non-transferable and not for re-sale. We reserve the right to ID any visitor if we suspect they are dishonestly using a Season Pass. Any Season Passes which have been altered in anyway will be void
- You must be aged 16 or above to be eligible for a Season Pass.
- All Season Pass holders are entitled to bring their own children or grandchildren aged under 16 with them on a visit free of charge, unless stated otherwise. You may only bring your own children and grandchildren without payment. We occasionally run special activities for children where there is a fee in addition to the Child Admission fee. Season Pass holders will not have to pay the Child Admission fee for their own children or grandchildren but may be required to pay the additional fee for the activity.
- If you lose your card, please advise us immediately so that we can arrange a replacement card.

We define our Season Passes as follows:

- Adult Season Pass – for one Adult (aged 18 or above)
- Family Season Pass – for two Adults (aged 18 or above) and up to four children.
 - We reserve the right to reject applications for Season Passes at our own discretion.
 - Season Pass holders with disabilities can admit up to two carers with them on visits to the park. If a Season Pass holder requires the support of more than two carers on their visit, please contact us to notify us in advance.
 - Season Pass holders may receive discounts on selected special events, workshops, and services i.e. café . These offers are not guaranteed, and we reserve the right to alter or remove the offer at any time. The offers are only valid for the Season Passes holders themselves and you may not allow a non-pass holder to use your card to unfairly receive discounts.
